

MORE House

MORE House is a sophomore living learning community in Greiner Hall designed for those who are looking to explore MORE, do MORE, and be MORE on campus and in the community. MORE House is focused on helping students explore their role in both the UB and Buffalo communities. Students will explore their personal definitions of diversity, leadership and community while developing their capacity for leadership by doing more and being more, especially in an ever growing global community. MORE House residents, as part of the living learning community, will be required to participate in curricular and co-curricular initiatives throughout the academic year. ### Requirements:

Fall 2014—Enroll in UBE110* - 2-credit course – This course explores the foundational skills you need to be a student leader on or off campus. While examining the role of diversity, this course will use the Social Change Model of Leadership as a framework for understanding oneself and how to effectively make change in a community. This course is scheduled for Wednesday's from 2-3:40pm.

Spring 2015—Enroll in UBE 496*—1-credit course – This course builds on the foundation of the fall course by focusing on advocacy and action on campus or in the local community. The course will meet every other week as an opportunity to reflect on your involvement in the community and to ensure you are making progress towards your cohort's goal to make a positive change in our community. This course is scheduled for Wednesday's from 4-4:50pm.

*Students must be able to register and attend both MORE House sections of these classes to participate in the program.

Applications available now and will be due February 10 ,2014
